

MAN UP MANIFESTO

A manifesto is a document that sets forth the principles and goals of an organization. Typically, it is designed to be widely distributed to the public, and it serves as an official declaration. Often, the document is political in nature, as is the case with the Communist Manifesto, although it can also be employed by artists and other collective groups as a medium of communication. In many instances, a manifesto is highly revolutionary, and is designed to stimulate public dialog.

Generally, a manifesto intended for a large audience is written in clear, plain language so that everyone can understand it. The document can be long or short, and many organizations create a shorter one for large distribution to pique the interest of the public. A shorter manifesto might appear in the form of a flier or poster which can be easily duplicated and distributed, and it will include information about where to obtain the longer version.

It is hoped that, after reading a manifesto, members of the public will seek out more information about the group that wrote it, creating a growing awareness of and support for a movement. In addition, the document can be used as a starting point for public discussion, as some readers will undoubtedly critique it while others defend it. These discussions can help to refine the manifesto, as members of the public bring up important issues which were not addressed in the original document.

The MAN UP MANifesto!! It's time for men to put up or shut up. Why aren't men personally responsible for financing and providing manpower for a spiritual war that is making their sons into homosexuals and their daughters into lesbians. What's the problem? The men sit around as castrated sodomites waiting for women to give them "permission" to commit to God's kingdom. You are pathetic if you sit here and watch your sons and daughters destroyed and you do nothing. It's time for men to sell out and do the job or go to hell as a non-combatant!! This has gone far enough. God is allowing this madness to reveal where the real saints are. Lord end the madness, raise up an end time army. MAN UP!!!
